

Call for Abstracts 2nd Africa in Transition Conference 2025

October 8-11, 2025

Accra, Ghana

Theme for 2025: *Centring Thought and Action of Global Africa and Beyond

Objectives: The second Africa in Transition (AIT) conference will highlight how intellectual thought, policy, action and advocacy by the African Diaspora and the world have impacted, or are impacted by the economic, social and political transformation that is occurring across the African continent. Conference presentations should discuss how intellectual thought, policy and action by global Africa and the world have impacted on African continent, the Diaspora or the world.

Submit papers to one or more of the following panels:

- Education and training
- Pan-Africanism in action
- Leadership and Governance
- Youth and development
- Entrepreneurship, trade and manufacturing
- Economic development thought, policy and action
- Technology and innovation
- Environmental sustainability and development
- Travel and tourism
- Health and wellness
- Arts, culture and the creative industries
- Sports and development
- Media and communication

Abstracts should focus on one of the major themes/topics of the Conference and be no more than 250 words. If your submission has multiple authors be sure to indicate who is be the corresponding author. You MUST indicate the panel of your choice as part of the submission process.

Submit your abstract to: Conference Chair at africaribbeancentre@gmail.com

Deadline for submission of all abstracts is March 30th, 2025.

Website: <https://conference2025.africaribbeancentrefordevelopment.com/agenda/>